Epiphany

Missa Sancti Nicolai-Franz Josef Haydn

The name of the 'Missa Sancti Nicolai' refers to the composition of the Mass for St. Nicholas Day in 1772. Every year on this day, a Mass was held in honor of the Prince of Esterhazy who shared his name-day with St. Nicholas. It was thought that Haydn wrote this composition specifically to thank the Prince for allowing him to return to Eisenstadt. The Cathedral Choir and soloists will be joined by guest organist, Dr. William Gudger.

It is customary to bless your house at Epiphany! Blessed chalk will be available after Masses on Epiphany for you to take home. The Rite of Blessing will be in the 6-7 January bulletin.

Christian Formation Classes will resume on 7 January 2018. Parent classes resume 21 January.
